

"How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these."

George Washington Carver

Join EcoVillage Farm in:

- Celebrating Dr. George Washington Carver Life and Legacy
- Saving our Vanishing Bees
- Honoring Paul Maheu, former Civicorps Coordinator, for his outstanding Community Service and
- Grand Parents Day

Saturday, September 21, 2013

10:00AM — 3:00PM

EcoVillage Farm Learning Center

21 Laurel Lane, Richmond (off San Pablo Dam and May Road)

Key Note Speaker: Mike Smith, Pastor, McGee Avenue Baptist Church and Chairperson, EcoVillage Farm Advisory Committee

Healthy and Delicious EcoVillage "Farm to the Table" Cuisine Luncheon

Workshops and Activities will include:

- Dr. George Washington Carver "Jessup Wagon"
- Painting of Plant Pots
- Guided tours of EcoVillage
- Saving our Vanishing Bees
- Petting Zoo for Kids
- Pony Rides (@ $3.00 per ride)

Donations Requested: $15.00, per person
Children 5—10 yrs: $5.00, under 5 yrs: Free

For more information call Shyaam at 510-223-1693

EcoVillage Farm is a project of the Earth Island Institute www.ecovillagefarm.org

Sponsors: EcoVillage Farm Learning Center, Civicorps, McGee Ave. Baptist Church, Bee Healthy Honey Shop, West County HEAL, and www.easycopycenter.com